

SKID MOUNT BRINE APPLICATOR

Engineered for applying liquid anti icing chemicals this unit utilizes all of the know how of 20 years of building large brine applicators sold worldwide. The small 75 gallon tank and electric pump are suitable for use in a 1/2 ton pickup truck. The skid is coated in a two part epoxy coating to resist corrosive materials and is equipped with lift hooks. We can also manufacture applicators to your specification with various sizes, drives, controllers and mounting options available.

Precision brine applicators include these standard features

- Electric 12V 18 amp draw pump.
- Commercial sprayer components designed for corrosive liquids.
- Automatic rate controllers from Raven, Microtrak or Spraying systems available.

- Tanks with deep Bottom sumps
- Lift hooks or fork Lift pockets

- Stainless steel boom with stream nozzles.
- Fast removal receiver hitch mount
- Various boom and nozzle options are available.